We are hereby authorized to announce the name of GILES MERRILL as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Yuma County, at the approaching November election.

For Sheriff.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of SHERIFF of the County of Yuma, at the approaching November election.
H. E. LINDSEY.

EXAMINATION OF WM. SAM.

Last Wednesday morning Wm. Sam, the Chinaman who shot and killed Charles Leroy, was examined before Justice R. B. Kelley. Messrs. Rowell and McCarthy appeared for the prisoner, and Clarence Gray, Esq., District Attorney, for prosecution. The examination of witnesses lasted two days, and the decision of the Court, rendered yesterday morning, was that the prisoner be held to answer to the charge of manslaughter before the Grand Jury. Messrs. Rowell and McCarthy labored hard for their client, but in vain. The case will be brought up at the coming November term of the District Court if the Grand Jury finds a bill against the prisoner.

DIED.—Charles Leroy, who was shot by Wm. Sam, a Chinaman, last Saturday, died from his wounds on Wednesday. Mr. Leroy was a native of New York, and about 36 years of age. He leaves a wife and four children.

JUDGE PORTER.—We see by the passenger list of the steamer Ori- flamme that Judge DeForest Porter arrived in San Diego last Wednesday. We may look for him by to-day's stage.

PLEASE EXCUSE.—Our San Diego friends will please excuse us for not publishing their advertisements in to-day's issue. We will attend to them in our next.

Paymaster Morrow arrived here this morning on the Cocopah, via steamer Newbern.

NOTABLE ARRIVALS.

By the arrival of the steamboat Cocopah, from the steamer Newbern at the mouth of the river, our town is honored (?) with the presence of five of the Indian delegation who recently were taken to Washington by Gen. Howard to see the Great Father. Three of the Chiefs returned to Camp Apache by way of New Mexico. The names of these celebrities are "Louis Moraga," Pima brave; "Antonio Azul," son of Pima Chief and heir apparent to the chieftancy; "Jose Bakatay," Apache Mohave brave; "Charley Aratagua," Apache-Yuma; "Ascencion Riga," Papago Chief. In conversation with Louis Moraga, who speaks and writes the English language, we learn that these braves are well satisfied with their visit, but not so with the conduct of Gen. Howard. Upon inquiring of the reason why they did not like Gen. Howard, and if he had not taken them to religious meetings, he replied: "Oh, yes; Gen. Howard take us all to Church every Sunday. But when we were asked to speak to the congregation, and we attempted to tell the truth in relation to the Apache character, and their outrageous conduct to us and the white race, Gen. Howard got angry and would not allow us to say anything detrimental to that murderous tribe. He made us Pima and Papago Indians, and the whites, who are poor and peaceful, who work hard for two or three years to raise a cow or pony, appear as devils before the people there, simply because we defended our property. The Apaches, who subsist by robbing and murdering us, he represented as Saints."

They return with trunks and valises well filled with clothes and blankets, and each has a medal, made of solid silver, presented to them by President Grant. On one side is inscribed: "United States of America. Liberty, Justice and Equality. Let us have peace." In the centre of this is a profile portrait of U. S. Grant. On the reverse side are the words: "On earth peace; good will toward men," with the seal of the Department of the Interior.

They like Washington very much, but still they prefer the mountains of Arizona for their homes.

Hon. H. Bendell was to arrive in San Diego on last Wednesday's steamer, and may be expected here by stage to-night.

Another Waterloo veteran is dead in the person of James Armour, who expired the other day at Linlithgar, Scotland, aged 84 years. He joined the British army in 1805, and was a member of the Royal Scots Greys, a cavalry regiment.

A Canard.

The San Diego Union comes out in an article about a Mexican Custom House at the mouth of the river. Want of space prevents our commenting upon it except to state that the Union has swallowed an unusually "big whopper." There is to be no Custom House there, and if there were, no duties could be exacted upon goods en route for this place, for by treaty stipulation, American vessels have right of free navigation upon the waters of the Colorado river and the Gulf of California within Mexican Territory.

HEAVY RAIN.—From a private letter received here by Wm. B. Hooper & Co., we learn that the rain of the 8th inst., which extended to this place, and the damaging effect of which we felt in our office, came pouring down upon Gila Bend like a huge water spout. Mr. Hunter lost about $500 pounds of barley which was washed out of his wagon, and Mr. Taylor, in charge of C. W. C. Rowell's train, lost two mules by drowning before they could be extricated. The water in some places was eight feet deep.

River News.

The steamer Newbern arrived at Port Isabel on the 13th, at 7 o'clock a. m., with full cargo.

The Cocopah arrived here this morning with 200 troops and ten passengers.

The Mohave is due here on Monday with first of freight from the Newbern.

THANKS.—Our thanks are due to T. L. Nesmith, Esq., President of the San Diego Bank, for a mess of luscious peaches grown in his orchard. We visited that gentleman's garden while in San Diego, and to see the thriftiness of his fruit trees and flower plants, was indeed a treat to us.

TEAM DEPARTURES.—Wm. B. Hooper & Co., during the present week, shipped goods to Tucson by the following trains:

Jose Salazar, 15,000 pounds citizen freight; Francisco Noriega, 8,000; Hipolito Murieta, 5,000; Fields & Bowley, 20,000; Plutarco Figueroa, 6,000.
